Rappahannock Community College Youth Success Story – Middle Peninsula

Several months ago, JL was living in the woods with some other teenagers. Thanks to the kindness of a local woman, he now has a place to sleep at night. In addition to homelessness, JL had many barriers including a previous court involvement. His probation officer referred him to the WIOA Youth program.

JL is enrolling in Adult Education classes to earn his GED. He is currently enrolled in his first welding class and is doing extremely well. He is motivated and even talked to a friend about the benefits of WIOA programming. JL brought that young man to his first appointment and they have plans to complete occupational training and education together.

JL loves to help others and shared that without this opportunity, he would feel lost. Due to traumatic circumstances JL dropped out his senior year, but he is now looking forward to a bright, successful future.
